Graham Personnel Services Announces Formation of Specialized Technology Staffing Group, GPS Technology

Recruiting Expertise in Information Technology (IT) and Computer Science

Hallmarks of Offering

GREENSBORO, N.C., November 14, 2011 – Graham Personnel Services, a full service professional staffing firm serving the Triad region and beyond, announces the formation of GPS Technology, its technology staffing group, which specializes in staffing and recruiting in information technology (IT), computer science and related fields.

“At Graham, we have cultivated our technology recruitment prowess over the last decade, and formally launch our new technology staffing group with extensive prescreened candidates at the ready and well-established technology recruiting relationships with Fortune 500 and other clients,” said Gary Graham, President. “We are extremely excited to have Kimberly Matko join our firm as IT Division Director.”

“With highly-specialized technology positions critical to so many businesses, it’s often challenging for human resources professionals and other hiring managers to find exceptional candidates who possess the right combination of knowledge, skills and experience,” observed Kimberly Matko, IT Division Director. “At Graham, that’s where we excel.”

Graham Personnel Services has 42 years of staffing experience, including more than a decade in technology-driven, mission-critical fields, including:

Business Analysis
Database Administration
Enterprise Architecture
Network & Systems Security (CISA, GIAC, CISSP)
Network Engineering
Project & Program Management
Quality Assurance/Testing
SAN Engineering
SAP Technical/Functional/Techno-Functional
Software Development
